

Chandler Asset Management Adds Three Professionals

Expanding and Strengthening Resources for a Growing Client Base

San Diego, California (April 28, 2014) Chandler Asset Management, a leading provider of fixed income solutions to the public agency sector, announced today the addition of three professionals to its team. Chandler welcomes Scott Prickett, Senior Vice President, Portfolio Specialist, and Julie Hughes, Vice President, Portfolio Specialist, to its investment management team, and Stacey Alderson, Client Service Manager, to its client service team.

Prickett brings over 25 years of financial industry experience to the firm, having spent much of his career working with public agencies and non-profits to help them meet their financial goals. Prickett will continue to focus on the needs of public agencies and other institutions in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Northwest regions. He will split his time between Chandler's Denver and Seattle offices. In addition to working as part of Chandler's investment management team, Prickett will also serve as a member of the firm's executive committee.

Hughes brings a high degree of professionalism and experience working with and advising public agency clients on their fixed income needs. As a member of Chandler's investment management team, Hughes will support the firm's Denver office and San Diego headquarters.

Alderson's past experience includes client service and investment operations. She will bring her expertise in working with public agencies to Chandler's Denver office.

"We are excited to have Scott, Julie and Stacey joining our team," said Kay Chandler, President and Founder of Chandler Asset Management. "Our expanding business led us to search for talented and experienced people to join our team and we are confident that we have accomplished just that. Our clients will benefit from the wealth of experience in the financial services industry that they bring."
