Chandler Asset Management Hires Mel Hamilton, Opens Office in Florida

San Diego, California (July 8, 2014) – Chandler Asset Management, a leading provider of fixed income solutions, is pleased to announce the hiring of Mel Hamilton as a Senior Vice President and Relationship Manager, as part of the firm’s expansion efforts. The firm has also opened a new office in Orlando, Florida, giving Chandler a local presence in the Southeast.

Mr. Hamilton brings over thirty years of industry experience, and will be responsible for the development and relationship management of institutional clients, including public agencies, healthcare organizations and higher-education institutions. Based out of the firm’s Orlando office, Mel will provide the same high level of service that has been the focus of his career.

“Mel and the experience he brings to the organization will play a significant part in the growth of our firm,” said Don Penner, Executive Vice President and Director of Business Development at Chandler Asset Management. “We look forward to enhancing our exposure to this part of the country, while continuing to maintain strong relationships with our existing clients.”
